CAMDEN POINT FREEDOM FESTIVAL

Camden Point will hold their Freedom Festival on Saturday, June 27. There will be a parade at 6:00 p.m. and fireworks later in the evening with a festival in between. I went to the festival last year and really enjoyed listening to the music and visiting vendor stations in the park. There were foods, crafts, and trinkets, mostly for sale by scout troops and other local non-profit groups.

I will be in the parade this year and volunteers are needed. Floats line up at the Camden Point Elementary School at 5:30 p.m. and the short 1/2 mile parade begins at 6:00 p.m. Please join us and wear one of my campaign t-shirts while tossing candy to the crowd along the route. This will be handled with proper social-distancing.

If you are willing and able to be part of the parade, please reply to this email and let me know what size of t-shirt you want.
